

Jamaica Spectrometer

AI Overview

Spectrometers in Jamaica can be sourced from local laboratory suppliers, specialized manufacturers, and online platforms offering delivery across the country. Local Suppliers and Distributors Jamaica Laboratory & Industrial Suppliers Ltd (JAMLAB) JAMLAB has been a leading distributor of scientific equipment in Jamaica for over 50 years, offering a range of laboratory instruments including spectrometers for research, industrial, and educational purposes . You can explore their catalog and contact them directly for specific spectrometer models. Agilent Technologies Agilent provides molecular and atomic spectroscopy instruments, including mass spectrometers. While their Caribbean office is based in Trinidad, they serve Jamaica and can facilitate orders and support . Aditya Systems Recognized as a manufacturer and supplier of spectrometers in Jamaica, Aditya Systems offers standardized solutions suitable for laboratory and industrial applications . Environmental XPRT Listings Several manufacturers and suppliers listed on Environmental XPRT provide laboratory and ICP spectrometers that can be shipped to Jamaica. Companies like SPECTRO and SIS offer optical emission, X-ray fluorescence, and mass spectrometry instruments . Online Platforms Desertcart Jamaica You can purchase UV-Vis spectrophotometers and other laboratory spectrometers online with free delivery across Jamaica. Examples include the N4s Spectrometer and CGOLDENWALL UV-Vis Scanning Spectrometer . Amazon Amazon offers a wide range of handheld, portable, and lab-grade spectrometers. While shipping may vary, many sellers provide international delivery options suitable for Jamaica . Tips for Purchasing Determine the type of spectrometer you need (optical, mass, UV-Vis, or XRF) based on your application. Check for local support and maintenance options, especially for high-end instruments like mass spectrometers. Compare prices and delivery options between local distributors and online platforms to ensure cost-effectiveness. Verify calibration...
